

DEMO MODEL GUIDELINES

Friday, May 10th, 2024. 6pm - 9pm. Carmichael, California

Hello.

Thank you for expressing interest in being the demo model for our upcoming evening. I wanted to share what the evening might look like so that everyone has a more accurate picture and expectation of what things might look and feel like, so that you may more accurately judge if participating in this will be fun for you.

A DEMO IS NOT A REGULAR SCENE BETWEEN DOM & SUB

- If we were doing a regular scene, all of my attention would be on you. My only goal would be to take you deeper into subspace and create a sensation/sensual experience that you have expressed desire for. You would have my undivided attention.
- Sometimes I may handle more than one submissive in a scene, but most of the time I would be fully engaged with only one submissive. My overarching goal would be to take you into subspace and not do anything that would disturb or prematurely pull you out of subspace. I would ignore and be oblivious to all surrounding and ambient noise and people. I would only be focused on the container I have created with my submissive.

Compared to that, a Demo is a bit of a circus act!

- I may be working with as many as 4 of you throughout the demo.
- I would take turns handling each of you, which means my attention would be divided among the various demo models.
- Even if I were working with just one demo model, I would be talking to the audience as I handle you, I might take their questions, I might handle you in a manner to demonstrate something to them, I may ask you to come out of subspace and answer a question that has arisen in the room.
- In spite of all that distraction, I will still do my best to create a Dom-sub field between me and you and take you into sub-space and pour some good sensation in your body.

PARTICIPATE IN AND ENJOY THE DEMO FOR THE JOY OF BEING AN EXHIBITIONIST

- That's the payoff that is not available in a regular scene:
- Be put on display in front of a roomful of people gazing at you.
- Let them see you get handled and fondled and aroused.
- Take pleasure in knowing that your body and arousal is arousing them.
- Zap them with your turn-on.
- Feel the thrill and vulnerability of being exposed and put on display.

CORRECT MINDSET AND ATTITUDE FOR SHOWING UP FOR THE DEMO

- Be light. Be playful. Go with the flow.
- The whole thing is a wild card and all of us are there to entertain, turn-on and enlighten the audience.

- Let's be co-conspirators together. Get along with everyone. Maintain a fun attitude. Like a bunch of actors on a stage, work to make the whole thing work.
- Have fun. This isn't very serious. Remain playful. Expect glitches.

ALSO, BE AUTHENTIC! BRING AND SHOW YOUR REAL TURN-ON!

- Don't be performative.
- Be easy to handle and also be ready to go into subspace, and be handled and aroused and turned-on in front of people. Let them see you in your turn-on. Share with them what you are really feeling. Share with them your real get-off. Zap them with the truth of your get-off. Speak the uncomfortable truths about your Eros.

Please write to me if you have any questions.

I'm including the Preference & Consent Form on the registration page. You can will fill out to let me know your desires and boundaries.

Even with these, please be a bit forgiving if any glitches in boundary violations occur. I am going be looking at multiple forms while handling you all. I could make a mistake about a particular boundary. If I do, please just speak up and correct me.

Also, I will request that whatever form of touch or play you are YES to with me, that you also be a YES to with any of the other demo models. For example, if you are a yes to me touching your breasts or spanking your ass, be a yes to any of the other demo models also touching your breasts and spanking your ass. I will create engagement, touch, play and turn-on between the demo models as part of the fun.

Also, I'm hoping there is at least one really good pain slut amongst you. I really like to demonstrate how pain in a genuine path to arousal for certain systems. Many people don't understand this. And many men today have become too nice and toothless to handle their women well in this department.

If you feel being a Demo for this event is something that fits with your desires, please email me at : OmRupani@me.com. You can put 'DEMO' in the subject line.

Warmly.
Om
